Record Crowd Hears Winthrop Rockefeller Speak

Hope Star photo, with 100-degree Schneider lens. THE LARGEST CROWD IN HOPE HIGH SCHOOL CAFETERIA history turned out for the Industry Appreciation Banquet Tuesday night when Winthrop Rockefeller brought a message from the Arkansas Industrial Commission, of which he is chairman.

PHOTOGRAPH SHOWS THE ENTIRE CROWD. THE Star's new Schneider Super Angulon wide-angle lens covering all the cafeteria seats on one negative for the first time.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE PICTURE OF THE SPEAKERS' table? The editor's head is bloody but unbowed. What happened is one of those strange events that haunt cameramen. As the public knows, just before making an exposure with a Speed Graphic camera you pull the black slide which protects the film in the holder. This leaves a thin slot on the right side of the camera. One of the cafeteria's few but powerful ceiling lights struck through this slot and put a black bar on the exposed negative — making it look as though someone's automobile had come around the corner and thrown its headlights at the scene. You protect this slot by standing in front of it when making pictures outdoors — but it's virtually unheard of indoors. We'll be back and the next time.

Meyer's Plans to Expand Local Bakery

Meyer's Brown 'N' Serve Bakery of Hope announces the addition of a "Sweet Goods" operation to the local plant. This operation is presently located in Texarkana and will be moved to Hope as soon as an addition to the local building is completed.

A contract was let last Friday for the construction of a 6,150 square foot addition which Company officials plan to have ready for use by August 1, 1960.

The new facility will add 25 employees to the number now working at the Brown 'N' Serve plant and a $100,000.00 per year addition to the plant's payroll.

Both the Hempstead County Industrial Foundation and the Hope Chamber of Commerce have worked very closely with the Meyer's officials in making this additional payroll possible.

Blevins Man Shoots Self to Death

Herman Brown, aged 49, a farmer of near Blevins, died at 8:20 last night in a Nashville hospital of a gunshot wound in the head.

Sheriff Jimmie Griffin who investigated the shooting said a note found indicated Mr. Brown shot himself to death. Dr. H. H. Holt, Howard County Coroner, attended the victim who was taken to a Nashville hospital where he died a few hours later.

Mr. Brown was found by his wife in the yard of his home. A .22 caliber rifle was found nearby. Sheriff Griffin did not reveal the contents of the note but said it gave no reason for the suicide.

Funeral arrangements will be announced.

Kiwanians Hear of Phone System

New telephone equipment with "electronic brains" was demonstrated before Hope Kiwanis Club Tuesday by Dean Brown of Little Rock, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company engineer.

The program was arranged by Fred Gray, local vice chief. Other telephone officials attending the luncheon meeting were Jerry Poe, manager of the Hot Springs office, and Jerry Brown of Texarkana.

Other guests included: Vic Cobb, Tommy Frazier and George Brown of Hope.

Defendant Missing at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Joe Rosenbloom, 65, Texarkana attorney indicted Monday on embezzlement charges, has disappeared. Prosecutor Royce Weisenberger said yesterday.

Weisenberger said Rosenbloom, free on $2,500 bond on the embezzlement count, disappeared from his home.

The prosecutor said Rosenbloom was indicted by a Miller County Grand Jury in connection with alleged embezzlement of $2,400 Sonya Sonnerville of Hope, which the Omar Sison estate in Little River County delivered to Rosenbloom for a Texarkana fertilizer company he represented.

Cost of Living in April Sets a New Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose four-tenths of one percent in April to another record high.

The rise was the largest for any month since last June.

In reporting the increase today, the Labor Department said it was largely due to a rise in food prices. Poor spring growing conditions were a factor in the upward movement of food costs.

The department's consumers price index rose to 126.2 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. This is 1.9 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Nearly a million workers in the auto, farm equipment and related parts industries will get a 2-cent-an-hour pay raise because of the April living cost rise. Their union contracts provide for adjustments based on the consumers price index.

An adjustment of about one-cent an hour will go to an additional 150,000 workers, most of them employed by the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Co.

Faubus Is Surprised by Florida Vote

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he was more impressed by Florida's election of "an outright segregationist" as governor than he was by Gov. Leroy Collins' selection as permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention.

The segregationist is Farris Bryant, 45-year-old lawyer, who won the Florida Democratic nomination for governor yesterday. Democratic nomination is equivalent to election.

Also yesterday Collins, a moderate in racial matters, was named permanent chairman of the national convention. He had backed Bryant's opponent.

Faubus spoke of "all the northern people that have moved to Florida."

"And they still elected an outright segregationist over a moderate who had Collins' backing," he said.

In answer to a news conference question, Faubus said he didn't know whether selection of Collins was an advantage to the South.

He also was asked if he saw it as an effort to draw the North and the South into closer ties before the convention.

"Faubus said 'I think it will be interpreted in that light but I personally don't know.'"

On another matter, Faubus said he thought Sen. J. William Fulbright's Senate Foreign Relations Committee was the logical group to investigate the Russian-United States spy plane incident.

Fulbright has announced the committee will make such an investigation.

Jefferson County Gains Population

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Jefferson County today became the fifth Arkansas county to show a population increase in the 1960 federal census.

Preliminary census figures released by Mrs. Sue Martin, district supervisor, show Jefferson with 80,546 residents, a gain of 4,471 over 1950.

The increase, coupled with a big loss in Mississippi County, moves Jefferson past Mississippi into second place in population among the state's 75 counties.

Pine Bluff's population was listed at 43,807, a gain of 6,639 over 1950 and 4,012 above a special census conducted in 1956. Pine Bluff held its position as the state's fourth largest city with Little Rock, North Little Rock and Fort Smith ahead in that order.

Pulaski, Washington, Crittenden and Saline were the other counties showing a population gain.

All other reported counties lost residents in the past 10 years. No reports have been submitted on Garland and Hot Springs counties.

Jefferson County's gain leaves the state with a net loss of about 140,000 persons with 73 of the 75 counties reported.

Negro Youth Held in House Burglary

The home of Herdie Muldrew, Negro resident of the Macedonia community, was entered Monday night and four silver dollars and two watches were taken. Sheriff Jimmie Griffin said two Negro boys, ages 11 and 13, were arrested for the burglary. They will be given a hearing in juvenile court.

Opposition Doooms Russian UN Resolution

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Western opposition in the UN Security Council today doomed a Soviet resolution asking for condemnation of U. S. spy plane flights.

Diplomats waited to see if the two neutral nations on the council — Ceylon and Tunisia — would line up with the Western majority or would merely abstain on the vote expected Thursday.

Both Ceylon and Tunisia were to speak this afternoon along with U.S.-allied Ecuador in the third session of the council debate on the Soviet charges against the United States.

Even before the council began debate, diplomats and observers at the U.N. had been certain the Soviet resolution would not get the seven votes necessary for adoption. Tuesday's session of the debate bore this out.

Only Communist Poland and the Soviet Union were committed to vote for the proposal. Argentina and Nationalist China said they would vote no. France said she could not give her assent to the resolution. Britain and Italy did not announce their voting positions, but they were known to be planning to cast negative votes.

The resolution was prompted by the downing of an American U2 photo-reconnaissance plane May 21 near Sverdlovsk, 1,400 miles inside the Soviet Union, and subsequent information from Washington that the United States had been making such spy flights over Soviet territory for four years.

The Soviets called on the council to condemn "incursions by United States aircraft into the territory of other states" and to ask the U.S. government to prevent their recurrence.

In the debate Tuesday, Jerry Michalowski of Poland said U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, in defending the U2 flight, had enunciated a "Herter doctrine" that the United States had the right to send spy planes over the Soviet Union for security reasons.

He said the 1928 Havana and 1944 Chicago aviation conventions, both ratified by the United States, banned unauthorized flights over foreign countries but that Herter sought "to replace international law by the law of the jungle."

Storm Alert for Areas in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau this afternoon issued two severe weather alerts involving parts of west and north-west Arkansas.

The more serious of the thunder storm fronts, affecting part of Benton, Carroll and Boone counties, might result in tornadoes, the bureau said.

The bureau alert said:

"Severe thunderstorms with tornadoes likely are expected to develop early this afternoon in southeast Kansas and northeast Oklahoma and move eastward in an area along and 60 miles either side of a line from 60 miles north-west of Tulsa, Okla., to 30 miles east of Springfield, Mo., from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m."

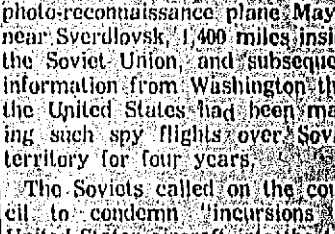

"Only part of Benton, Carroll and Boone Counties are affected in Arkansas."

The second warning said scattered severe thunderstorms with locally-damaging winds and large hail were expected to develop in eastern Oklahoma and north-central Texas and move eastward during the early evening into extreme western Arkansas.

The alert period was set from 3 p. m. to 9 p. m.

All or part of Sebastian, Crawford, Washington, Benton, Madison and Carroll Counties would be affected in Arkansas, the Weather Bureau said.

SECTION 1. In addition to other powers granted by constitutional or statutory authority, cities of the first and second class may issue, by and with consent of a majority of the qualified electors of said municipality voting on the question at an election held for the purpose, bonds in sums and for the purposes approved by such majority at such election as follows:

For the payment of any indebtedness existing at the time of the adoption of this amendment; for the purchase of rights of way for construction of public streets, alleys, boulevards, and expressways, within the corporate limits of such municipality for the construction of widening or straightening of streets, alleys, boulevards, expressways, and parking facilities, within the corporate limits of such municipality; for the purchase, development and improvement of public parks, airports, flying fields, and recreational facilities located either within or without the corporate limits of such municipality; for the construction of sewers and comfort stations; for the purchase of fire alarm systems; for the purchase of street, police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the purchase of street and sewer cleaning equipment and apparatus; for the purchase of sites for construction of, and equipment of city halls, auditoriums, court houses, prisons, libraries, hospitals, clinics, public bathhouses, incinerators or garbage disposal or sewage treatment plants; for building for the housing of street police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the construction of viaducts and bridges; for the purpose of purchasing, extending, improving, enlarging, building, or construction of water works or light plants, and distribution systems therefor; and for the purchase of sites for, improving or equipping harbor and river terminal facilities; and for the acquisition, development and construction of other municipal or public facilities and improvements. In order to provide for the payment of the bonds issued under the provisions of this amendment, and interest thereon, a special tax in addition to the legal rate permitted may be levied by municipalities on the real and personal taxable property therein. And any municipality issuing any bonds shall, before or at the time of doing so, levy a direct tax payable annually sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as the same matures, and also sufficient to pay and discharge the principal of all such bonds at their respective maturities. The special tax permitted by this amendment shall not be subject to any constitutional limitation; provided, however, the General Assembly may by legislative act limit the rate of such taxation, which limitation shall be effective only upon a special tax levied for the payment of bonds issued after the effective date of such legislative act.

Said bonds shall be serial, maturing annually after three years from date of issue, and shall be paid off as they mature, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall be issued for a longer period than thirty years.

Said election shall be held at such times as the city council may designate by ordinance, which ordinance shall specifically state the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and if for more than one purpose, provisions shall be made in said ordinance for balloting on each separate purpose; which ordinance shall state the sum total of the issue, the dates of maturity thereof and shall fix the date of election so that it shall not occur earlier than thirty days after the passage of said ordinance. Said election shall be held and conducted, and the vote thereof canvassed, and the result thereof declared under the law and in the manner now or hereafter provided for municipal elections, so far as the same may be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Notice of said election shall be given by the mayor by advertisement weekly for at least four times, in some newspaper published in said municipality and having a bona fide circulation therein; the last publication to be not less than ten days prior to the date of said election.

Qualified voters of said municipality only shall have a right to vote at said elections. That the revenues from such tax may be used for any municipal purpose now or hereafter authorized.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly may by legislative act allow cities of the first and second class to levy additional taxes for any municipal purpose, now or hereafter authorized, and such taxes or the rates thereof shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 4. The salaries of officials and employees of cities of the first and second class shall be fixed by the governing body of such cities, and the amounts of such salaries shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall be in force upon its adoption, and shall not require legislative action to put it into force and effect.

PROPOSED
AMENDMENT NO. 52

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of liberty and bulwark of a free and good government, it is hereby declared to be the public policy that Arkansas shall ever provide financial aid whereby all residents of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as directed by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and, that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declare policy of the people of this State shall be raised, at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and, financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years; and such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do any and all things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

SECTION 5. There is hereby levied and there shall be collected an annual per capita tax of one dollar from each resident of this State over the age of twenty-one years, and the proceeds thereof shall be used for educational purposes in such manner as is now or as hereafter may be provided by law.

SECTION 6. Not less than fifteen days next preceding each annual school election, the board of directors of each school district shall prepare, approve and make public a proposed budget of expenditures in which there shall be set forth the amount of funds determined by the board as being necessary to provide, during the next following fiscal year, gratuitous instruction for residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years. The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, buildings and other property owned by the district; and (d), in such detail as the board shall determine, the estimated amount of funds required for other educational purposes. From the total of the aforementioned requirements for the fiscal year shall be deducted the estimated amount of funds to be available to the district from State aid and from all other sources other than the local property tax, and the remainder as so determined shall be designated and known as the budget deficit. Based upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the territorial bounds of the district for the then current year, the board of directors shall determine the rate of tax levy necessary to provide, when applied to the amount of said assessed valuation, funds of sufficient amount to meet the aforesaid budget deficit; and the rate of tax levy as so determined shall be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors of the district at the next following annual school election. Whenever, at any annual school election, a majority of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition shall approve the rate of tax levy proposed by the board of directors, then taxes shall be collected at the rate so approved. In the event the rate shall not be approved at any such election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of thirty (30) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation, or at the rate approved at the next preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levy shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies therefore approved for the purpose of meeting the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for.

SECTION 7. With respect to each school district, proposals for the issuance of bonds and for the collection of taxes at a continuing rate of levy for the payment thereof may be submitted by the board of directors for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any annual school election; and, upon petition of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the board of directors, such proposals may be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a special election called for the purpose by the County Judge. No school district may issue bonds unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a school election shall approve the same; and no bonds or other evidences of debt hereafter issued by any school district shall be secured by a lien on the property of the district, and no district may pledge any of its revenues for the payment of said bonds or other evidences of debt except revenues to be derived from the collection of taxes upon taxable property within the district under a continuing rate of levy approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at a school election. The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special school election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which all or the major portion of the land area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. The County Judge shall call such special election within thirty days after the receipt by him: (a) of a petition containing the signatures of not less than a majority of the board of directors of the district; or (b) of petitions containing the signatures of not less than ten per cent of the qualified electors of the district. Provided, that not less than twelve months shall elapse after any such special election before another special election may be called for the purpose of again voting on the proposition of changing the manner of applying financial aid.

In each instance in which the manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be through student education financial aid, then all funds of the district, save only such funds as are necessary to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, to meet its other contractual obligations, and to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 9. Either branch of the General Assembly at a regular or special session thereof may propose amendments to this measure, and, if any such proposal be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house such proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at a special election called for the purpose by the Governor; and if a majority of the qualified electors voting at such special election adopt such amendment the same shall be operative on and after the 30th day after the election at which it is approved, unless otherwise specified in the amendment. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit the power of the General Assembly to submit proposed amendments to this measure as provided by Section 22 of Article 19 of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 10. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 11. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 to the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

DOROTHY DIX

Should Girl Defy
Parents and Marry?

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am 18 and a music student. In high school I went with a talented boy of excellent background. My parents favor my marrying him.

Three years ago I met another boy, the son of a millionaire. The mother of my first boy friend called my parents, grandparents and neighbors. She had wanted him for her daughter.

My parents, overcome by her tales, told me I could not see him any more. He and I talked to them. The answer was no. We did not see each other for several months. When we tried again to get permission, it wasn't granted and we began to slip off and date. We are never happy doing this.

My parents have told me they will disown me if I marry this boy. I feel they think his money attracts me. I wish he were poor instead of rich so that I could prove my love. When I went off to college I tried to forget him and be happy with the boy my parents want me to marry, but that was impossible.

I'm desperate. The boy I love has asked me to marry him. I am of legal age. He will be able to support me. The only thing holding me back is my parents. People we know think a lot of him and feel we should marry. What do you think?—J.

Dear J.: Follow the dictates of your heart. But talk to your parents once again before taking the final step. Tell them that you are marrying the boy. Ask if they will make your happiness complete by coming to the wedding. Perhaps they'll relent.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

Would you please send me your leaflet, "So You Want to Write?" I guess this is my suppressed desire. I enjoy your articles—they are so down-to-earth and full of common sense. Thank you very much.—L.M.W.

And thank you, dear L.M.W. "So You Want to Write" goes to you today John Erskine repeatedly told me that the way to write was write. He also impressed upon me the importance of reading and discussing the classics. He did just this in his famous "Honors Course" at Columbia. He often said that one of the reasons he read was to see how the other fellow wrote.

There are a few really useful handbooks on Writing. One is Dorothy Brande's "On Becoming a Writer" (out of print); try second hand book stores); Lafe A. Hearn's "Talks to Writers"; and Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch's "The Art of Writing."

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her in care of this newspaper.

Spy Satellite Whirling About World

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An experimental Midas "spy" satellite today whirled about the earth every 94.34 minutes, ready to test its missile detection equipment on giant flares and friendly rockets.

Midas, weighing 2 1/2 tons, will determine the feasibility of using a series of such satellites to patrol the earth for enemy missiles. These orbiting space stations will use infra-red sensing devices to detect the heat trail of a hostile missile the instant it is fired.

The alarm would be radioed to the United States, which then would have about 30 minutes to activate defense and retaliatory

The Midas test vehicle Tuesday was launched into a near-circular orbit from this missile base. Air Force officials reported the path through space ranged from an altitude of 322 miles to a perigee of 292 miles. They said the Midas and sensors were functioning properly and that the program was planned to its instrument-laden nose always is pointed at the earth.

The mammoth satellite, 22 feet long and 6 feet in diameter, probably will test its sensing equipment for the first time on huge sodium flares set to ignite at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. The first flare will be fired within a few days, at a time when the satellite passes overhead.

Midas also will try to pick up rocket launches at Cape Canaveral and Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., during its expected useful life of three to four weeks. It probably will remain in orbit about three years.

The satellite is following a course that covers all territory 20 degrees north and south of the equator. It does not pass over the Soviet Union.

However, by the end of the year, an advanced Midas and the first Samos reconnaissance satellite are expected to be spinning in polar orbits that will take them over the Soviet Union.

Mr. Ida Man Is Held in Shooting

MOUNT IDA, Ark. (AP) — Ed Hulsey, 45, of Sims was found shot to death on a county road near here yesterday. Another Montgomery County man was being questioned about the shooting.

Sheriff Ralph Godbehre said Hulsey apparently died to death from a 30-30 rifle bullet wound. The sheriff reported Bud Stoval, 43, also of Sims, said he shot Hulsey in self-defense after an argument over some property.

Godbehre said a 22 caliber rifle, with one shot fired from it, was found near Hulsey's body. No charges have been filed.

Southpaws Hurl Pirates Out of First

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
You might call it a left-handed swipe at Pittsburgh, but it's been southpaw pitching that has dupped the Pirates out of the National League lead.

They dropped a 4-2 decision to Los Angeles and Johnny Podres Tuesday night and slipped eight percentage points behind San Francisco. The Giants got back on top with a 4-0 victory at Philadelphia behind the four-hit pitching of Sam Jones, who gained his first road success of the season. It was the second straight defeat for the Pirates and their third in four games. All three losses were in left-handers—Podres and Dodger teammate Sandy Koufax, who blanked the Bucs on one hit Monday, and the Giants' Johnny Antonelli.

Fact is, southpaws have been responsible for Pittsburgh's last four defeats and five of their six losses in two weeks.

The other two NL games—Milwaukee at St. Louis and Chicago at Cincinnati—were rained out.

In the American League, Baltimore regained first place from Chicago by beating the White Sox 6-1 in the opener of a two-game series. The Sox fell to third behind the Cleveland Indians, who whipped Washington 7-2. Detroit rapped New York 4-0 on the four-hit pitching of Don Mossi. Kansas City tagged Boston with a 10th straight defeat, 6-2.

The Dodgers got two runs in the second inning on Gil Hodges' homer off losing left-hander Joe Gibbon (3-2), then scored the clincher in a two-run fifth. A single by Jim Gilliam, Charlie Neal's sacrifice bunt, which led to Gibbon's run-scoring error, and a sacrifice fly by rookie Frank Howard got the final two home-

Archie Moore Returns to Ring Tonight

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, looking as though he trained for a fat man's picnic race, makes his first start in nine months tonight against Germany's Willi Besmanoff in a 10-round heavyweight match. The nationally televised match 9 p.m., EST (ABC-TV) is a replay of a May 2, 1958 bout in which Moore scored a split decision over Besmanoff in Louisville, Ky. Moore is called a 2½ to 1 favorite even though he'll come into the ring about 200 pounds, 25 over the 175 limit at which he reigns world champion.

Archie, supposedly approaching 46, may even weigh a few pounds more than the sharply trained Besmanoff, who fights out of Milwaukee. Certainly, he has the bulge in age, almost 20 years over the 27-year-old Besmanoff.

This will be a $25,000 payday for Moore in his only start between his last outing, a three-round knockout of Yvon Durelle last Aug. 12, and his next scheduled title defense, against Germany's Erich Schoppner, in July.

Moore has a $25,000 guarantee or 35 per cent of the net, including TV, from the show in the Coliseum which is expected to draw 8,000 and a possible $60,000 gross. Besmanoff has a $6,000 guarantee. The venerable Moore has a 17-24-6 ring record, against 41-19-7 for Besmanoff.

Orioles Are No Longer Pigeons in American

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Baltimore Orioles... it appears, no longer are pigeons for the other American League clubs.

The Birds, backing southpaw rookie Steve Barber with a five-run fourth-inning, rode back into first place with a 5-1 victory at Chicago Tuesday night, dropping the White Sox to third with their third straight defeat in the opener of a two-game series.

It was the third consecutive victory for the Orioles. They now have a 3-1 season edge over the defending champions and a half-24-6 ring record, against 41-19-7 for Besmanoff.

Cleveland moved into second place, five percentage points ahead of Chicago, with a 7-2 victory over Washington. Detroit closed within one game of fourth place, New York as Don Mossi whipped the Yankees 4-0 with a four-hitter. Kansas City sent Boston to a 10th straight defeat, 6-2. In the National League, San Francisco regained first place by beating Philadelphia 4-0 on a four-hitter by Sam Jones. Pittsburgh slipped eight percentage points behind the Giants with a 4-2 loss to Los Angeles. Milwaukee at St. Louis and Chicago at Cincinnati were rained out.

Johnny Romano drove in three runs for Cleveland, two with a clinching, seventh-inning homer. The Indians then counted four in the eighth. Bubba Phillips drove in two with a single. Jim (Mudcat) Grant, now 12-0, lifeline against the Senators, won it with a four-hitter for a 2-1 record. Jim Lemon hit a two-run homer in the ninth, his 10th, tops in the majors. Chuck Stobbs (1-1) lost it.

Minor League Boys to Meet

All little boys with at least one of their parents are urged to meet at the Little League Park Thursday at 4 p.m. Any boy who will be seven on or before Aug. 1, will be eligible to play on one of the minor league teams.

There will be four teams if the number requires it, the Yankees, managed by Joe Walcott, Ed Ogran, and Bill Caldwell; Red Sox, managed by A. Z. Turner and R. D. Huffman; Giants, managed by E. P. Young and Jack Brown; Braves, managed by Billy Dan Jones, Ben Walter and Joe Smyth.

All boys who previously played on a minor league team and have been promoted to little league, please turn in the minor league suits to E. R. Brown, Cecil O'Steen, or Charles Gough before 4 o'clock Thursday of this week.

WEST BERLIN
PRESENT STATUS	Occupied by U.S., British, French troops since 1945. Has own independent, elected civil government.
POSSIBLE FUTURE	Even more isolated by pressure from East Germany, given control of Berlin through peace treaty with Russia.
EAST GERMANY
PRESENT STATUS	Formerly Soviet Zone of occupation, now called German Democratic Republic. A puppet satellite of Russia.
POSSIBLE FUTURE	Separate peace treaty with Russia would enhance status as "independent" nation, give it "right" to Berlin.
RAILROADS, HIGHWAYS
PRESENT STATUS	Run through 120 miles of East Germany. Allies guaranteed access by treaty. Russians man checkpoints.
POSSIBLE FUTURE	Control would be turned over to East Germany, which Allies would refuse to recognize. Access would be blocked.
AIR CORRIDORS
PRESENT STATUS	Flights restricted to 10,000 ft. altitude by Russia. U.S. does not formally recognize this limitation but obeys it.
POSSIBLE FUTURE	Attempts to close corridors, which saved West Berlin in 1948, would have to be made by force by East Germans.

THE ISLAND OF BERLIN—The present status of West Berlin, and its future even more precarious position, are compared in Newsmap above. The hottest point in the rapidly warming-up Cold War, West Berlin, once again is the target of Russian pressure. Reviving the possibility of a separate peace treaty with East Germany, the Soviet Union has warned that the signing of such a treaty would end Western communications rights with the city. Still going by the agreement reached at the end of World War II, which divided Berlin into east and west zones, the Allies have stated they will not recognize any Russian-made East German sovereignty.

Grim Humor Helps Cast of Movie

By BOB THOMAS
A Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tony Randall and Wilfred Hyde White were driving toward the "Let's Make Love" set.

Randall (worriedly): Oh dear! I have a line today. I think something like "What a life!"

White (soothingly): Cheer up, old boy. If you need help with it, call on me.

Randall: Do you have any lines today?

White: Heaven, no. I haven't had a line in a fortnight.

Such grim humor has helped keep a hardy band of male performers from blowing their tops in the past six months. They are engaged in supporting Marilyn Monroe in one of the weirdest film projects in history.

First, Gregory Peck was supposed to play the lead, then he dropped out. Then there was a search for another star, with Frenchman Yves Montand winning out. Then there was the actors' strike. Then there is Marilyn.

On a recent day, Marilyn was scheduled to arrive at 10:30, came at 3, did her first scene at 4:34. A film that was scheduled for in days will take six months, ending, it is hoped, June 10. "Nothing ever goes as it is scheduled," says Director George Cukor cheerfully.

Montand was under the gun to fulfill a concert date in Japan. When it became apparent he could not make it, the Japanese promoters were paid off.

Less fortunate was Frankie Vaughan. Unlike other actors who get weekly salaries, the British entertainer is drawing a flat fee for the picture. He has had to pass up thousands of pounds for engagements at home, where he is a hot ticket.

Urban Britisher White told of hurrying to finish a film in England so he could be here for the November starting date. He began "Let's Make Love" in mid-January, and his 10-week stay has stretched to six months.

Guard Group Has 500 Members

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Non-Commissioned Officers' Association of the Arkansas National Guard now has a membership of more than 500. The group was held in 1958 and meeting at nearby Camp Robinson.

The association, organized last year, approved formation of 10 districts within the state. A district chairman was named for each area.

Eye Witness to Japan's Tidal Wave

Editor's Note—The U.S. Air Force flew newsmen to the wave-stricken areas of Japan for observation and interviews. Here is AP's Gene Kramer's eyewitness and interviews.

By GENE KRAMER

HACHINOHE, Japan (AP)—The sea, which provides a livelihood for thousands of Japanese, mauled northern Honshu's coast this morning.

Fishing villages along 100 miles of coastline felt the wrath of the Pacific tidal waves from Chile's earthquake that struck at dawn. Boats were tossed ashore, houses flooded and thousands of terrified Japanese chased to higher ground in their night clothes.

"We're staying on high ground because we don't know whether it's going to be the ordinary type or the tidal wave when it comes back tonight. The alert is still on," said Takeshi Shimizu, a shopkeeper.

Although water receded from most of Hachinohe, sections up to a half mile wide were still submerged. A coastal railway line was blocked with debris.

Tomigoro Nishimura, a farmer who lives with 10 members of his family at the edge of Hachinohe, said: "The fire siren alerted us 5 or 10 minutes before the wave hit about 4:30 a.m. My family and the neighbors ran up the hill. The water rushed in a foot over our floor. In just a few minutes it came three times."

Evening found many storekeepers moping out the last of the water. Muddy streaks across the walls, doors and show windows showed how high the waves had come—in some places four feet.

Japanese soldiers were helping with cleanup work.

No School Bus Death This Year

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas 3,300 school busses have transported 184,000 children to and from school daily without a single injury or death this year, Education Commissioner Arch Ford said today.

"If no school child is killed or injured this week," Ford said, "Arkansas will have made an enviable safety record for this term."

Classes in most schools end this week.

Ford said the safety record was established despite the fact that some drivers are elderly persons with physical handicaps.

He credited a rigid inspection of busses and efforts by local authorities to create "safety mind-fulness" for the good record.

Article by Adlai in Paris News

PARIS (AP)—An article brought up in the U.S. Senate quoting Adlai E. Stevenson on foreign policy appeared in the newspaper Paris-Press two days before the summit meeting but was based on a visit to Stevenson's home in Illinois a month before.

Reporter Robert Boulay quoted Stevenson as saying that the presence of 11,000 U.S. soldiers in West Berlin means nothing strategically and they could be reduced to 7,000. Asked if they might be reduced more, perhaps to nothing, Stevenson was reported to have replied: "Yes, not now, but later."

He was asked whether U.S. soldiers would eventually be pulled out of Europe, and Boulay said he replied: "Yes, in the future. I think the Europeans, Germans, French, English, etc., should be able to defend themselves in Europe."

Boulay reported he reminded Stevenson that experience of the past 10 years give little cause for optimism on any Soviet guarantees about Berlin.

He said Stevenson replied: "That's right. But a change is possible. For the future, an agreement must be sought and a solution be found."

In a statement issued through his Chicago office Stevenson acknowledged that Boulay visited him at his home in Libertyville, Ill., on April 16 but said he did not grant the French newsmen an interview.

Stevenson said Boulay had "evidently confused discussion with opinion." The Democratic leader said he had never made "political statements which resemble in the slightest those attributed to me."

Boulay said he was presented to Stevenson "as a journalist" and was not told at any time that

No Need for a Runoff, Faubus Says

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that he expects to win a fourth term without a runoff.

And Faubus opponent Joe C. Hardin predicted the governor would use "social discontent" in his campaign — just as he did two years ago, Hardin added.

"I am aiming for a victory without a runoff and what I have found does not discourage me in the least," Faubus told a news conference at his Capitol office.

Hardin, one of four men running against Faubus, said the governor "hopes to make use of the same demagogic appeal this year" that he did in 1958.

"I view this with genuine fear," the Grady plantar said. "This is the tool of a dictator. He must find some emotional issue to perpetuate himself in office until he has gained complete control of the election machinery, then free elections are impossible."

Hard Pursued

THE STORY: Sheriff McQueen offers Ry Buckner a deputy's badge in order to search for Duke Jordan. The sheriff explains that Duke shot and killed Larkin Rigby, owner of the Hatchel ranch.

Buckner took a swig of his coffee. Wear a badge, and he could hunt down Duke and still as the question he had to put to Duke. The difference was that, as a lawman, he'd have to bring Duke in. He had to ride as his own man. He put down the coffee cup. "I reckon not, McQueen."

McQueen said in that same sharp voice, "Better a badge than the bars in yonder jail section, boy."

"Meaning what?" "So you didn't break and enter, since the window had a busted lock. Just the same, it could go on the books as illegal entry. There's money in the county treasurer's office and a bit scattered here and there in other places. How would a court see the situation. A man has been convicted once of larceny. He comes back from prison, and if you shook him by the heels right now, I'm betting, you'd strew mighty little silver on the floor. So he's found prowling the courthouse, maybe trying the door of the treasurer's office. You see how it would stack up."

Buckner rose from the chair. "McQueen, I grew up on talk of you," he said holly. "I've heard tell you have a badge where your heart ought to be. I've heard a lot of things tallying up to your being the toughest lawman this side of Texas. But I never heard tell that you played the crooked way. You know what brought me into this building tonight?"

McQueen said stonily, "Just the same, I've given you a choice, boy."

Buckner stared at him, stared at a legend shattered. He sorted out the words, wanting the sharpest ones to sting at McQueen, but he didn't get them said. Someone was laying a heavy fist against the street door leading into the office area beyond, and that was Spence Rigby's voice shouting, "Sheriff! Open up! We want to talk to you!"

Over his shoulder, McQueen shouted, "Just a minute, Spence!" He looked across the table at Buckner, and then he did an unexpected thing. He unbuckled his gun-belt and laid it on the table between them. "I'll be through with them shortly, boy," he said.

"You just wait here and think over what I offered you. I was only trying to do you a favor and me a favor at the same time." "And if I pick up your gun and have it lined on you when you come back—"

"Then I won't need any make-up story about you tinkering with the treasurer's door, boy. I'll really have you where the skin pinches."

Rigby's fist hammered the outer door again.

McQueen turned and walked into the office area. Buckner knew that room, more littered than this one, a cubbyhole dominated by a big rolltop pigeon-hole desk stuffed with papers. McQueen passed from his sight, but he could hear the sheriff unbolt and wrench open the street door. The lamp out there flared wildly to a gust of wind, and Rigby's voice came loud. "What kept you, Virg? Asleep?"

McQueen said evenly, "It's that time of night, Spence."

Rigby's voice turned shrill with anger. "You point your ear while a killer rides loose? Must be three hours now since Sam Tull brought you the news."

McQueen said stiffly, "I don't need you to tell me how to handle my job, Spence. I've been a man-hunter a long time. I never gained anything ramming around in the middle of a night, fighting matches in the windy dark to look for signs. Duke's trail will be easier cut come daylight."

"We don't plan to wait, Virg. We're riding tonight. Will you swear us in as deputies?"

"No," McQueen said flatly. "I way. Tull's voice lifted. "There's near a dozen of us out here, Buckner. Throw that gun down. Buckner shook his head. "You've got the odds, granted. But the first one to die will be Spence. Then, if I've another second left, I'll try for you, Sam."

McQueen moved forward then, compelled by a sense that the clash in the next room had come to crisis. As he moved, he plucked McQueen's six-shooter from its holster, then bent and blew out the lamp so there would be no light behind him. He got to the doorway between the two rooms and stood there. He could now see McQueen's stiffened back, and beyond McQueen, Rigby, his round face ablaze with anger, and beyond Rigby a shapeless mass of mounted men out there in the street. That high form to the fore would be Sam Tull.

McQueen said, "Listen to me, Spence. For all his faults, Lark Rigby stood for something hereabouts, and he was as much a friend of mine as any man. You're his heir, it seems, but that doesn't change the fact that Lark had no use for you and that you started because everybody knew it. Could it be you've got hang-tree fever because, one, you've never stacked very high in anybody's eyes and here's your chance to get even with the whole world, and two, by getting Lark's killer you'll be pretending that Lark meant something to you which will make Lark look wrong for not having given a hint for you? Either case, you don't aim to bring Duke in. You aim to run him down and lynch him."

Rigby's face got redder. "Man, I'm asking to be deputized! I'm even asking that you come along! How do you make hangtree fever out of that?"

CHAPTER IX "I'm not finished," McQueen said. "Look at that pack behind you, Hatchel hands who remember that Lark was a pretty decent boss. Men easy twisted when the time comes. And Sam Tull heading them. A man who worked for Lark but hated him every minute because Lark was the boss and he was the hired hand. This is the outfit you want deputized! Get out of here! Have the decency to bury your dead before you do anything else. You forgot how it might look folks if Lark's funeral doesn't come first?"

That last gave Rigby pause. Buckner could see the man start. But Rigby's buster came back. "We'll take care of Lark. But we'll be riding afterwards."

"Not with any blessing of mine, Spence."

From behind Rigby, Sam Tull's voice came, flat and cold. "Don't stand arguing with him, Spence. He's too old for his job. The next election will wash him out. Walk in there and help yourself to some badges. We'll tell the town we asked him to do his duty and he wouldn't."

McQueen fell back a pace. "Don't try it!" he said. "I'm warning you!"

He'd made a mistake, taking that one backward step. Buckner knew. The second mistake was that McQueen had let his voice break. Until this moment he had been implacable and magnificent, holding back Hatchel by sheer force of nerve, that and the legend behind him. But Rigby moved a step forward now, a knowledge of victory naked in his eyes. Until Buckner spoke.

"Far enough, Spence," he said and moved from the doorway on into the office, McQueen's gun held level.

"Buckner," Rigby said and drew in a deep breath. His eyes squinted tighter, and he almost looked asleep. "We should have kept hunting you, I see, instead of turning back for more important business. We should have stomped you into the ground."

From the rim of the lamplight spilling through the street door—realized that McQueen had planned it so. The gun hadn't been left as some sort of temptation for Rigby Buckner. McQueen had shoved his gun to be sure he'd have no call to use it. And now Buckner remembered Tull's "He's got too old for his job," and he remembered, to McQueen's trying to blackmail him into taking a deputy's badge. McQueen had been that desperate for help. Truly, time had worn away the rock.

McQueen sat down, his shoulders slumping. "Get out of here, boy," he said.

"I'm free to walk out?"

McQueen looked up at him, and he saw the suffering in the sheriff's eyes. "You said you'd never heard tell of my playing any game the crooked way. I tried to hold a club over you tonight. Maybe in the years to come, there'll be a time when you'll understand why. And when you do, just remember, something else: I didn't repay a favor with a disfavor. Now get out of here!"

"I'll remember," Buckner said. He walked into the office, then and slipped back the ball on the door and stepped out into the empty, wind-swept street.

UA Commencement Speaker Named
FAVETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Russell J. Thackrey, of Alexandria, Va., executive secretary of the American Ass'n. of Land Grant Colleges and State Universities, will speak at the University of Arkansas 80th annual spring commencement June 4.

Thackrey, who was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree by the university in January, 1958, will address approximately 725 seniors and graduate students, their parents and friends at 5 p.m. in Razorback Stadium.

Thackrey, a native of Kansas, is a former newsmen and college instructor and administrator.

He started serving a five-year prison sentence imposed for obtaining money under false pretenses in Arkansas.

His attorney said she reported to Cummins State Prison at Grady, Ark., but he still plans to appeal her conviction.

Mrs. Ellis was arrested in January after community boosters at Marshall, Ark., raised $51,000 and turned it over to her on her promise to start a factory in Marshall. The plant operated less than 30 days. She was convicted at Marshall in April.

MONETT, Mo. (AP)—Mrs. Gladys Ellis, 58, who operated a chain of small garment factories in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, and Oklahoma, has surrendered.

Depressed Areas Bill Veto Upheld
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today upheld President Eisenhower's veto of the 251-million-dollar depressed areas bill. The victory for the President came after three hours of debate full of political overtones.

Democrats contended the veto showed the President and his administration are insensitive to the plight of communities suffering from long-term economic distress.

Republicans replied that Democrats were seeking to play politics with the issue. GOP senators said that if the majority in Congress really wanted to get legislation on the subject there was plenty of time to work out a compromise.

The administration has indicated willingness to go along with expenditure of some smaller sum in an effort to create jobs in communities with chronic unemployment.

The vote was 45 to override and 39 against. This was 11 votes short of the two-thirds majority needed to pass legislation over a veto.

Legion Leader Not to Visit Russia

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The national commander of the American Legion has canceled a sched- uled trip to the Soviet Union.

"Where the President of the United States is not welcome, no American citizen should go," Mar- tin B. McKenney, of Newburgh, N.Y., said Monday.

He told interviewers the Ameri- can Legion is concerned about what appears to be increasing re- liance of independent movie pro- ducers on the talents of Commu- nists and their sympathizers.

"The film community is made up mostly of 'good-law-abiding' peo- ple," he said, but the industry is in need of self-regulation.

Mental Case Shoots, Kills His Wife

COOPERSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A steelworker recently discharged from a mental institution shot and killed his wife and a male neigh- bor early today near this hamlet, about 100 miles north of Phil- ladelphia.

Armed with a 30-30 rifle, he then fled on foot into a nearby wooded area, touching off a widespread search.

State police said the dead were Vera Rose Shuffstall, 47, of Coop- ertown, R. D. 4, and Harold Du-Pont, 42, also of Cooperstown R. D. 4.

State police were searching for Lloyd Shuffstall, 51, a partytime farmer. They said Shuffstall was discharged as a patient last Tues- day from Warren State Hospital.

State trooper Charles E. Scott, son of the barracks at Franklin, said a man phoned him early to- day identifying himself as Derald Shuffstall, a son of Lloyd Shuffstall's.

The voice said: "Someone has been shot up in our house. Some of my relatives but I don't know who. You'd better send a car up here."

An ambulance was sent to the scene. The driver and his helper found Mrs. Shuffstall dead on the first floor of her farm home. Du- Pont's body was found lying be- side his car on a muddy dirt road about a half mile away.

The driver said someone fired a couple of shots at him and he drove off without picking up the bodies. The bodies were later re- covered.

State police said Shuffstall in- duced across the rural road and shot DuPont when he stopped his car. He then went to his home and shot his wife.

Two Shuffstall children were in the house during the shooting. Neither was hurt.

Some 60 armed troopers, police- men, volunteer firemen and others searched for Shuffstall through the night.

Fatigued After American Tour

LONDON (AP)—Sir Thomas Beuchman is suffering from acute fatigue after an American tour, a spokesman said today.

The spokesman said the 81-year- old conductor "is not terribly ill, but he has got to be looked after carefully at the moment. There is no cause for anxiety about his con- dition."

Sir Thomas canceled a Scandi- navian tour but still plans to con- duct in Glyndebourne in July and August.

China's role in world affairs, Pel- ping radio reported he was greet- ed at the airport by Gen. Wang Shusheng, vice minister of na- tional defense.

Assessor Salary Based on Census

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Salaries of county tax assessors in Arkan- sas will be revised next Jan. if federal census figures are ac- cepted by that time, the attorney general's office ruled today.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Bill J. Davis wrote the opinion, which said Ar- kansas law classifies the counties according to census figures and salaries of assessors are based on that classification.

Preliminary census figures in- dicate most counties have lost population since 1950.

The opinion went to Julius Livingston of Lake Village, Chicot County assessor.

Former Engineer Dies at Marion

MARTON, Ark. (AP)—William G. Thustable, 66, a former chief engineer of the St. Francis Levee District and former Arkansas High- way Department engineer, died yesterday at his home here.

He had been consulting engineer for the levee district in recent years, after serving as chief en- gineer since 1935. Prior to that time he was a resident engineer for the state highway department.

He was active in Marion civic affairs and was a member of the U.S. Rivers and Harbors Commis- sion and several civic, fraternal and professional organizations.

Survivors include his widow and two daughters.

Honorary Degrees at Monticello

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP)—New Mexico Gov. John Burroughs got an honorary doctor of law de- gree and became an Arkansas Traveler last night. Arkansas in- dustrialist W. R. (Will) Stephens also received an honorary degree at the Arkansas A&M commence- ment.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus made Burroughs an Arkansas Traveler after the visiting governor had made Faubus an honorary colonel.

Stephens, of Little Rock, is pres- ident of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co.

In a commencement speech, Burroughs urged the 95 graduates not to be afraid to enter politics.

Fine for Wheat Over Quota

WASHINGTON, A (AP)—The Agriculture Department has announced that the wheat grown this year in excess of a farm's marketing quota will be subject to a penalty of $108 a bushel.

The penalty is authorized by farm law to discourage overplant- ing. Generally speaking, a farm's quota is the amount of wheat grown on its acreage allotment.

By comparison, the support rate for this year's wheat will be not less than $1.77 a bushel.

Brownie, recently the mother of three kittens, has added two young squirrels to her brood.

Jim Edwards, son of Mrs. W.J. Edwards, found the squirrels after they apparently were blown from their nest in a storm. Jim took them in the house, hoping to find a way to feed them.

That's when Brownie took over. Now she's raising squirrels and kittens side by side.

Wade Howell of Greenbrier pro- mised his neighbor, Shelby Gene Sawrie that he'd buy the license when Sawrie got married. That was three years ago.

The other day when Sawrie, 23, and Betty Verneal Bowie, 26, went to get a marriage license, County Clerk Jewell Crow had a surprise waiting for them—an envelope containing Howell's check for $3.00, the price of the license.

A Batesville man cut a switch to use on his four-year-old son. The boy, wise in the ways of such things, streaked into the house and under a bed.

Daddy followed to the bedroom. "Where are you, son?" he called. Still hoping to throw Authority off the trail, the boy replied from his hiding place: "I'm in the closet."

Little cars are reported to be menacing highway revenues by consuming less taxable gasoline. Maybe, suggests the editor of the Harrison Times, "we should spill more when we fill 'em up."

A state trooper got an alert to watch for a drunk driver in the Huntsville area the other night. He spotted the car, stopped it, and loaded the driver into his patrol car for transfer to custody of a Huntsville trooper.

The two officers met to effect the switch, leading the driver to jail. "Where were you going?" asked the Huntsville trooper.

"I was parked, officer," the sod- den driver replied, "when this gentleman offered me a ride. I don't know where we was going, but you can't arrest me because he was driving."

Then there was the story about the Arkansas bank which got a call from the local police station. The message: "Say, your burglar alarm is ringing. Is everything all right?"

Most Powerful Generator Shipped

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The largest and most powerful turbine generator ever built was shipped today from the East Pittsburgh plant of Westinghouse Electric Corp. to Helena, Ark., the firm announced today.

Westinghouse said the one-million pound generator was ordered by Arkansas Power & Light Co. for a new power station on the Mississippi River.

The generator puts out 326,400 kilowatts, which is enough electricity to meet the residential needs of 750,000 people.

The unit has a generator stator frame which is 42 feet long and the rotor weighs 57 tons.

Nine railroad cars were required to ship the generator to the site of installation.

The turbine for the generator was built at the Westinghouse Steam Division in Lester, Pa.

Warm Weather Helps Cotton

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Recent warm weather was just what Arkansas farmers needed to help promote growth of young cotton and to aid seed germination, the federal-state Crop Reporting Service said today.

Cold, wet weather disrupted germination and forced replanting of up to 90 per cent of the cotton crop in some northeastern counties, the agency said in its weekly crop report. Replanting is virtually complete.

Warmer weather also is promoting growth of fruit and vegetable crops.

Soil moisture is excessive in the northern half of the state because of last week's heavy rain, the report said. Damp soil and the work of replanting cotton delayed sowing of soybeans, but that job will get underway in most counties as

Writer in Japan

TOKYO (AP) — American novelist Pearl Buck arrived in Tokyo today as a tidal wave was battering northern Japan. The winner of the Nobel and Pulitzer prizes came to work on a movie script based on her novel "The Big Wave," a story of Japanese fishermen.

Soon as soil conditions permit, some replanting was necessary for the rice crop.

State Farmers Top Member Goal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation has topped its goal of 45,828 members by 140.

H. W. Robertson, director of organization for the agricultural agency, said the goal was exceeded May 20, the earliest date in history for completion of a membership campaign.

Mobile Baseball Manager Resigns

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Al Hollingsworth resigned as Mobile Bear manager following last night's 6-5 loss to Atlanta. Bob Jenkins, a veteran outfielder, was named temporary manager of the Southern Assn. Club. General Manager Jim Wyche said Walter (Hot) Evers, director of Cleveland farm clubs, is scheduled to come to Mobile tomorrow and name a new manager. Mobile had been picked in pre-season polls to make a strong bid for its second straight pennant but had been in the cellar until the last few days.
